LeadUF: Engaging Stakeholders to Develop Leaders

Summer 2014
Campus Leadership Brainstorm
Competencies Developed

2015
BCLS/CRC/SAI
Competencies Combined

Fall 14 – Spring 16
LeadUF Development Team
Program Developed from Competencies

It started with a Leadership Brainstorm on this question -

What skills, knowledge, or abilities should a student have if they go through a "leadership" program at the University put to a campus-wide meeting of faculty/staff representing -

9 Colleges & Academic Units   8 Student Affairs Departments

Bob Graham Center for Public Service | College of Dentistry
College of Agriculture and Life Sciences | College of the Arts
College of Health & Human Performance | GatorWell
College of Liberal Arts & Sciences | Graduate School
Department of Recreational Sports | Dean of Students Office
Vice-President of Student Affairs | Heavener School of Business
Student Activities and Involvement | Office of the Provost
Housing & Residence Education | Multicultural & Diversity Affairs

led by -

Chris Cupoli
Senior Director of Alumni Affairs & BCLS Alum

LeadUF- By the Numbers

Male – 40% | Female – 60%

Senior – 13% | Freshman – 23% | Junior – 33% | Sophomore – 33%

Students responding that their development increased Moderately/Greatly as a result of participating in LeadUF

Highest Rated

My ability to solve problems with others.	95%
My ability to lead others through a challenge.	88%
My understanding of how emotional intelligence impacts my life.	88%
My ability to use emotional intelligence as a leader.	88%
My understanding of how my identities have impacted my life.	86%
My ability to understand complex situations and create a solution.	86%
My understanding of how I handle conflict.	86%

Lowest Rated

My ability to share who I am in a unique way.	76%
My ability to receive feedback effectively.	76%
My understanding of how to grow from failure.	76%
My comfort with failure.	60%
My understanding of why ethics are important.	60%
My ability to make ethical decisions.	52%

BCLS/CRC/SAI Competency List

1. Critical Thinking
2. Communication Skills
   a. Verbal
   b. Written
   c. Non-Verbal
3. Sense of Self
   a. Ethics
   b. Self- Management
   c. Identity and values awareness
   d. Motivation and Initiative
   e. Appreciation and engagement with Diversity
   f. Emotional Intelligence
4. Teamwork
   a. Conflict Management
   b. Understanding of Group Dynamics
   c. Collaboration
5. Community Responsibility

To learn more about LeadUF, go to our webpage at leadershipandservice.ufl.edu/programs/leaduf/

The Brown Center for Leadership & Service